Sub: To Celebrate "NSS Day" through "Online Events" - Regarding.

On the occasion of the 51st anniversary of the National Service Scheme which is an Indian government-sponsored public service program conducted by the Ministry of Youth Affairs and Sports of the Government of India. It is popularly known as NSS. The scheme was launched during the Gandhiji's Centenary year in 1969. This is aimed at developing student's personality through community service; NSS is a voluntary association of young people in Colleges, Universities and at +2 level working for a campus-community (esp. Villages) linkage.

NSS was formally launched on 24th September, 1969, the birth centenary year of the Father of the Nation. Therefore, 24 September is celebrated every year as NSS Day. The motto of NSS is "Not Me but You". It reflects the essence of democratic living & upholds the need for selfless service.

A week-long celebration is conceived in commemoration of NSS Day which will be culminating on 24th September, 2020. Online competitions have been conceived in order to spread awareness about NSS and its various themes.

NSS Unit-B of GGSIP University alongwith NSS unit of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies (affiliated to GGSIPU) shall be conducting the event as a joint effort.

REPORT

The National Service Scheme was launched on 24th September 1969 by the then Education Minister Dr. V.K. R.V. Rao in 37 Universities with 40,000 NSS Volunteers covering all States, since then the NSS day is observed on 24th September every year. On this day the NSS volunteers are appreciated for their efforts and dedication towards serving the society. The NSS Cell, Unit-B of Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, Delhi, in collaboration with the NSS Cell of Vivekananda Institute of Professional Studies, celebrated this day on 24th September, this year.

The current pandemic has posed severe challenges in our day-to-day lives. Along with the need to take care of physical health, we sometimes compromise to improve our mental health. Therefore, the theme 'Holistic Health and Well-Being' for NSS DAY 2020, was chosen to create awareness and to promote the message that physical and mental health go hand in hand. NSS has a duty towards its volunteers in keeping them healthy & fit, physically & mentally both, so that they can serve the community in much better ways for which a series of online competitions were conducted from 17th to 22nd September.

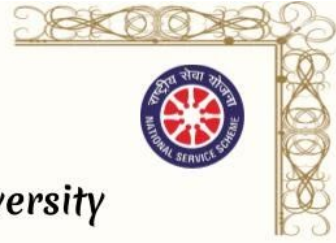

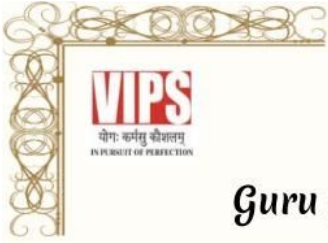

Students from all colleges could participate in online competitions. No registration fee was charged in order to support the ideology. The entries for all the competitions were accepted through google form and were submitted in various forms like video. PDFs and images, depending upon the requirements of the competitions respectively. The last date of registrations was 22nd September 2020.

REPORT

(MAIN EVENT ON 24th SEPTEMBER 2020)

The NSS Cell Unit-B, GGSIPU in collaboration with the NSS Unit, VIPS celebrated NSS Day on the 24th of September 2020. The event was a combination of various lectures by Honourable guests and faculty members along with online competitions. Prof. B.V.R. Reddy (Program Coordinator, NSS Cell, GGSIPU), Shri H. Rajesh Prasad (Principal Secretary, Higher Education, NCT of Delhi), Prof. N. C. Gupta (Officiating Vice-Chancellor, GGSIPU), Mr Suneet Vats (Vice Chairman, VIPS), Shri Ravi Dadhich (Registrar, GGSIPU) were invited as the dignitaries for the event. Prof. N. Raghuram (Chief Vigilance Officer at GGSIPU), Prof. Saroj Sharma (member in Board of Studies of Academic Councils of many Universities in India), Ms Bharti Dudeja (Associated With Production And Distribution Of Proteins For The Malnourished Children In Villages) and Mr L.V.M. Kishore (VP, Times Of India), Prof. Dhananjay Joshi ( Dean, University School of Education, Founding Faculty Member of University School of Education) were the speakers who motivated the students with their talks.

FIRST SESSION

Prof. Shilpa Khatri Babbar, Professor & Director, Academic Excellence and Public Relations & Protocol of VIPS, VIPS, hosted the first session of the event. The program was initiated with the Ganesh Vandana which was performed by Simran Sethi, a student of VIPS. Following it was the welcome address given by Dr B.V.R.

Reddy who proudly announced the plans of GGSIPU to carry forward the ideas of NSS. After this, where the video displays of the NSS activities conducted by the NSS Units of GGSIPU and NSS Unit of VIPS. The videos included all the activities and campaigns successfully organized by both the teams to honour the special occasion.

Prof. N.C. Gupta then gave the presidential address in which he expressed his appreciation towards the NSS volunteers. He said, “I saw the website of the Ministry of Youth Affairs yesterday and I was surprised to see that in this COVID pandemic, NSS youth volunteers supported the program with immense help. NSS volunteers across the country were engaged in mitigating the Covid-19 pandemic. From April 2020 to July 2020, you will be surprised to know that around 27 lac NSS volunteers were employed in different states and territories. They were helping the civil authorities, in the enforcement of lockdown, in distributing food, groceries and medicines to the needy.”

Dr Suneeet Vats also talked about the importance of being selfless in today’s time. He also added “Resonated enough in Gita, ‘action without any attachment to fruits’, that’s what we have to learn in today’s generation and it’s an important message being given out to people that- be selfless and stop caring about the fruits, that will come to you in due course of time. But our message is very loud and clear that we as a society, if we have to live together, we have to learn to give to people and we have to learn to share the privileges we have with everybody”.

There was a video display about the events which had been conducted throughout the week and the videos of students’ work were shown to the audience. Prof. Dr Shilpa Khatri Babbar also spoke a few words, recognizing the efforts of the NSS volunteers in carrying out these activities and the reasons behind choosing the theme for the NSS Day. “NSS is not just an activity, it is a worship, a devotion where the sacred is the other, the other who is not as fortunate as u” she added.

The Chief Guest Shri. H, Rajesh Prasad gave a captivating speech where he highlighted the role of charity in our lives and the importance of the words – ‘वसुधैव कुटुम्बकम्’ (the world is one family). He said, “Don’t ask what nation has given to you but ask what you have given to the nation”.

A vote of thanks was given by Dr Neeleshwar Sonnathi, Deputy Program Coordinator and Prof. Dr Shilpa Khatri Babbar who concluded the first half of the event with their graceful words.

SECOND SESSION

The second session began with a lot of enthusiasm at 2 pm with Dr Shipra Mittal Gupta, GGSIPU as the presenter. The session was initiated with the NSS Anthem followed by a welcome address by Dr Neeleshwar Sonnathi, Asst. Program Coordinator.

The first Lecture was by Prof. N.Raghuram, USBT, GGSIPU, on the topic 'Youth and Social Reforms' where he talked about the history of NSS and responsibilities of youth towards society. He briefed about the role of youth in reforming society by recognizing the social problems being faced by people.

The next lecture was by Prof. Saroj Sharma, USE, GGSIPU. on the topic 'Youth and Social Services' where she talked about the agendas of UNESCO for youth displacement and migration and how NSS should involve them. She also mentioned the role of parents and the education stakeholders in mentorship highlighting the new education policy.

The next session was by Ms. Bharti Dudeja & Mr. LVM Kishore on the topic- "The Power of One" where they discussed the secrets of positive perspective of life. They suggested different ways of planning and achieving the goals. It was an interactive session in which they had a question-answer session.

After the enticing guest lectures, a motivational speech was given by Prof. Dhananjay Joshi, Dean USE where he encouraged students for taking up volunteer work under NSS. Shri Ravi Dadhich Registrar, GGSIPU, announced 51 best NSS volunteers from GGSIPU and VIPS as it was its 51st anniversary . He also thanked the faculty members who made this event successful.

Prof Amar Pal Singh, Dean USLLS, discussed the modalities of results announcements of various events.

The event concluded with a valedictory address by the Chief Patron, Prof. N C Gupta, Officiating Vice Chancellor GGSIP University. Prof. Gupta appreciated everyone for their efforts and overcoming the challenges of organising the online events successfully. He also mentioned the role of NSS volunteers in fighting the pandemic.

A vote of thanks was given by Dr. Anuradha Jha, Program Officer, NSS Unit-B. Finally the session concluded with the National Anthem of India.
